The Five Senses

In the four fast-flying years a student spends at Lawrence Central, he gradually gains the many things that go to make up the experience of a high school education. And when he's handed his diploma, he takes with him not only a mere knowledge of readin', ritin', and 'rithmetic, but also a more thorough understanding of life itself.

As he attains adulthood, he will recall the never-to-be forgotten memories that filled his four years at school. Undoubtedly . . . the sight of the classroom . . . the sound of music from the gym . . . the smell of the chemistry lab . . . the bitter taste of defeat at a football game . . . and the feel of enduring friendships . . . will linger long after the three R's have been forgotten.

WE SAW

*New boy yell leaders . . . the odd creations called corsages the girls presented their beaus at the Sadie Hawkins Dance . . . burr hair cuts
. . . steadies strolling in the halls . . . Madge cleaning windows.*

WE HEARD

The 8:05 bell but never made class till 8:09 . . . the yelling section cheering the '51 Bears to the finals of the county tourney . . . "Good-night Irene"

WE FELT

Showers after a hard basketball game . . . the bogged down feeling after a slumberless slumber party . . . weather -19° below . . . new soft grass under our feet in spring baseball practice.

WE TASTED

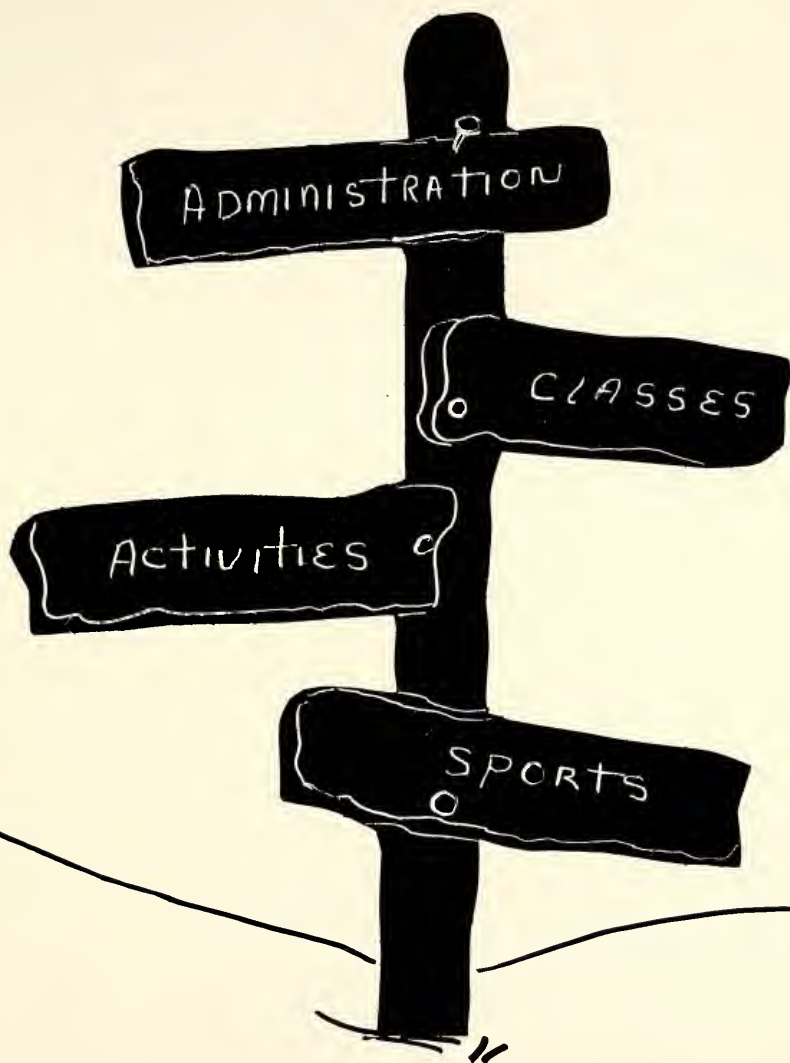

The noon lunch after five hard classes . . . bookstore peanut brittle . . . cokes with your best girl . . . hot dogs at football games . . . Tri-Hi-Y popcorn.

WE SMELLED

Hydrogen sulfide as we went to our afternoon classes . . . correction fluid from the commercial room . . . wood smoke at class wiener roasts . . . intermingling scents of the corsages at dances.

Faculty . . .

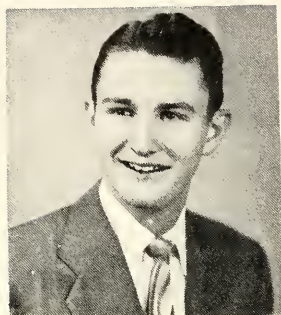

Our teachers, yes! But our friends, too! The seniors are leaving the school with a deep appreciation of the friendly attitude and help given by the faculty during the past four years.

There are few changes in the faculty from year to year. This seems to indicate that the teachers like the pupils and do not want to leave. Eight of the teachers have been members of the faculty since the school was opened in 1941.

Mr. Keesling is completing his eighth year as principal. He is a capable administrator and the seniors wish him many more happy, successful years in his present position.

So the seniors say thanks to all for everything!

Activities

Remember? How could we forget? All the things that add up to a memorable year at Lawrence Central. All the incidents, whether especially gay, or especially sad, or especially exciting, leaving an impression on young minds and hearts. The dances, the parties, all the little “get-togethers” and happy times we’ve enjoyed. All this can be summed up in one word “activities,” a common word around any busy high school.

Remember last year’s prom? . . . the dream-like, perfect night, never to be forgotten. And graduation—there are too many emotions about a graduation to attempt to put down in words, but there’s just something special about it . . . the “Sadie Hawkins” dance, an evening of informal fun and hilarity . . . of course the football games in the crisp fall air, the suffocating suspense of a close basketball game, the class leagues, girls’ and boys’ . . . the “Calico Hop,” an old-fashioned hoe-down, noisy and gay—“Swing Your Partner!” . . . the Sweetheart Ball, a huge success, “My dear, just everybody was there!” . . . of course the Xmas Dance with that special “holiday feeling” . . . the combined Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y party, the highlight being, of course, the basketball game—loads of laughs and fun. . . . There are many more things to remember and perhaps to laugh or cry over, but it can all be summed up in three little words—“fun for ’51”!

PROM

The 1950 Prom was certainly a triumph for the Junior Class. It took place on the balmy summer evening of May 3rd at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, where a delicious dinner was served at eight o'clock, preceding three heavenly hours of dancing to the sweet refrains of Joe Zaney and his orchestra.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Janet Wilcox as prom queen. She and her colorful retinue advanced to the throne, where she was crowned by Carroll Bragdon, vice president of the Senior Class. Miss Wilcox's court consisted of Joey Nickell, Norma Schmidt, JoEtta Smith, and Ann Cain.

The memories of this wonderful evening will long remain after these pages turn yellow with age.

Sports

The 1950-51 sports year at Central got off to a flying start with the cross country squad capturing the county crown.

As the football season ended, the Bears were the Capital District Champions for the second straight year.

Wrestling, something new at Central, filled many spare hours for many boys throughout the winter months.

Coach Bruce led the Bears to the final game of the county tourney, after a successful season.

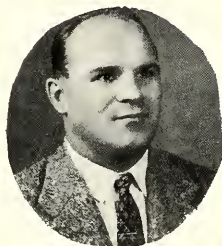

In the spring season, track and baseball shared the spotlight, with golf as an up and coming sport at Central. The cindermen claimed a good record and produced a sectional winner in the shot-put. Future years in baseball looked bright as Coach Paden's roster indicated a growing number of under-classmen.

Boys and girls competed in volleyball and baseball, but basketball led the way. Class league teams gave the boys and girls of LC the opportunity to compete in basketball games through the regular season. These games were watched by both girls and boys with much interest and enthusiasm. The Juniors placed a close second, but the Seniors came out on top.

The Lawrence Central "iron men" finished a successful grid season, with an eight and one record, marred only by a single set-back at the hands of Speedway's County Champs.

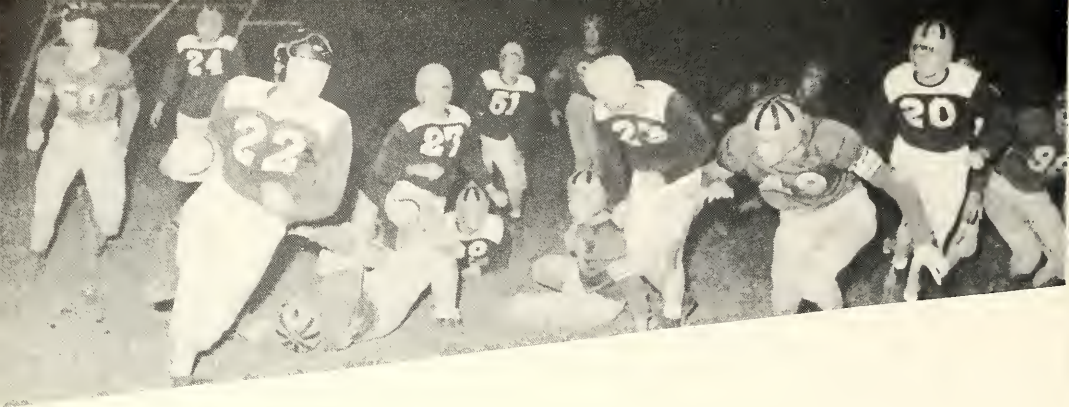

For the second straight year the Bears captured the Capital District Conference, with Quarter-back Bob Pugh winning top scoring honors.

The Bears were lighter and not as fast as last year, but just as powerful with a line which averaged a scant 150 pounds and paperweight backs averaging but 140.

Most of next year's help will come from the reserve team, with only four of the starting eleven returning. Sixteen letters were awarded.

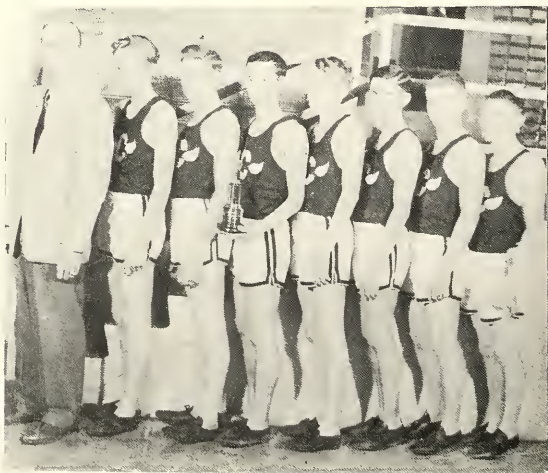

Raymond Rice, Ronnie Grimes, and Bob Pugh captured top positions on the first team of the all-conference and the all-county teams.

Although somewhat lacking in height, the 50-51 cagers proved that they had what it takes to make a winning ball club. Handicapped by inexperience, the hoopsters got off to a slow start. As the season progressed, they showed their mettle by their nearly capturing the county crown.

Gar Wallsmith took top scoring honors as well as winning the free throw trophy for the best shooting percentage from the charity stripe.

As we close the '51 Bears' Den, the annual staff wants to say thanks. Thanks for letting us give you your annual. We appreciate your interest and co-operation that combine with everyone's hard work in making this book what we hope is a success. We want to thank you for giving us so much to remember. . . . We hope you enjoy your annual as much as we've enjoyed bringing it to you. The "hard back" covers are a new feature in the LC annuals. We hope you like them, too.

An inexperienced staff got off to a slow start. Then along came the "mump epidemic," and our co-editor, Jerry Lyst, was co-editing from bed for three weeks. With the actual task of putting out a year book was combined the job of getting out our bi-weekly school paper, The Cub Reporter.

As the deadline drew nearer and nearer, one could see the different members of the staff running helter-skelter soliciting ads, taking pictures, developing them, writing and rewriting, taking annual subscriptions, and a hundred and one last minute details that had to be completed in order to make this book a reality.

We hope you like your yearbook. They're your school days as well as ours.
